

NEW YORK CITY AUDUBON

New York City Audubon's mission is to celebrate, protect and conserve the city's birds and their habitat.

Dear Friends,

Looking back over the previous fiscal year, New York City Audubon has accomplished much for the birds and people of New York City. Some highlights were:

- Educated hundreds of New Yorkers on urban nature with the award-winning film Pale Male and our children's publication Look Around New York City.
- Spoke before the Lower Manhattan Development Corporation to insure that the design for the new World Trade Center site will be safe for migrating birds.
- Hired Emily FitzGerald as Administrative Assistant to increase our effectiveness.
- Advocated for a bike path that would not impinge on the habitat of the Jamaica Bay Wildlife Refuge.
